KISSENA LAWYER IS INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGE

Glaser, Who Got $66,000 Fee from Park Sale, Surrenders Himself.

the city was made to pay more than the Democratic party of Kings. acres of swamp land on the Black to join the revolt against McCarren's Stump road, near Jamaica. Glaser got leadership.

Island City and surrendered himself. He was accompanied by his attorney. James W. Osborne, of Manhattan, and his friend. William Winkler, of Far Rockaway. The Sheriff took Glaser before Supreme Court Justice Jaycox, at Flushing. Glaser pleaded not guilty, with leave to amend or withdraw his plea by Feb. 27. Bond was fixed at $5,000. Winkler provided the bail. At the same time John Welz. who was indicted some days ago for forgery in the Kissena Park case, and who has been at Hberty on bonds of $10,000, was arraigned to plead. Through Mr. Osborne he also entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was continued.

Assistant Attorney - General Nathan Vidiver, who is conducting the inquiry into the scandal, asked Justice Jaycox for bench warrants for two witnesses, who he said, could not be reached by "Borough lines are not supposed to "Borough lines are no James W. Osborne, of Manhattan, and for bench warrants for two witneses, who, he said, could not be reached by subpoenas. The Justice isued an attachment for one man, who had already ment one day before th Grand Jury. H declined to issue any warrants until furthr effort had been made to scrue the attendance of the witnesses.

Mr. Vidiver said th Grand Jury would be at work on the Kisena Park transaction until the end of February. It is expected that indictments against several officials of the Borough of Queens will be returned next week.

WANTS METHODIST CHURCH TO TAKE DOWN THE BARS.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 7.-Addressing the Methodist ministers' weekly conference here yesterday Rev. J. Ernest ments. "Let the Methodist Episcopal Church rescind its penal regulations on amusements which have become a dead letter and take down the bars for conscientious persons who see no wrong in some of the things prescribed, and it will be no trouble to fill the churches," said Rev. Mr. Balmer.

WAR ON "LONG PAT" ARMY MEN TELL IS OPENED BY COLER

Movement Starled to Oust McCarren From Leadership in Kings County.

Brooklyn, to-day proclaimed war ercises in the gymnasium in some cases inadequacy of the ration and the cut against Senaor Patrick H. McCarren and "everything that McCarren stands for." President Coler is the head of an ant-McCarren movement in Brook learned to-day lyn which will be organized in every that he had been indicted by Queens distric in Kings County. The real was will take place at the primaries, when it is proposed to throw all the availwith their investigation into able forces against McCarren in an 000 to do extra and non-military work scandal, by which effort to unseat him as the leader of now required of soldiers. half a million dollars for eighty-seven Coler to McCarren men, inviting them

"McCarren," said Coler to-day, "sold an attorney's fee of $96,000 for putting the deal through.

As soon as he heard the news he went to the office of Sheriff Harvey in Long Ha is prepared to sell out the party again at any time.

"Borough lines are not supposed to exist," said Coler. "We want no tiger in Brooklyn. We want a clean Democracy, and that can be had only by removing McCarren for all time."

It is understood that James Sheviin is in the fight with President Coler against McCarren and that Tammany is really going to be a factor in the crusade against "Long Pat."

NASSAU NOT FOR LOEB.

National Delegate.

ALBANY, Feb. 7.-Judge Wallace, of Nassau, who had a talk here yesterday with Senator Burr, announced that William Loeb, secretary to the President, would not be sent to the Repubdent, would not be sent to the Republican National Convention as a delegate from the Nassau-Suffolk district.

"The people of Nassau," said Judge Wallace, "believe that they ought to have some one to represent them at the convention who has made that county his residence. We are certain that Mr. Loeb will not go from Nassau, and that Congressman Cocks will. He is our choice." *************************************

THEIR GRIEVANCES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 .- There have been plenty of responses both from of-ficers and enlisted men to Secretary Taft's invitation for an expression of reasons for discontent and unrest in the Army. The reasons given as contributing to disturbing conditions are the practice marches, compulsory exting off of "extras" in the way of food and the character of extra work. The department has already taken steps to ameliorate some of these conditions. The rations have been increased, and to create a service corps to cost $400. The monetary value of the increase
